Catherine Austin Fitts, founder and publisher of the Solari Report, was a Wall Street and Washington insider in the 1980s and 1990s when globalization and corruption took over at the expense of local economies and people. Catherine fought and then bypassed the system and now advises her subscribers on how to navigate risks in a world of uncertainty and change, while taking action and building living and financial equity.

Some recent feedback about Catherine Austin Fitts and the Solari Report

"I have been watching and listening to Catherine Austin Fitts for ~20 years, and I have Never Known her to be Wrong.... She is one of The Best Freedom Fighters On the Planet!"

"You are the best and help me understand so much. My business is better functioning, more insightful, and thrives more than ever partly due to the actionable intelligence I receive."

"You bring people who represent the best of humanity to your interviews. That is what makes the Solari Report different and worth subscribing to."

"Thank you for being such a rock of rational and independent thought in these remarkable but deceptive times [and for] the consistently beautiful aesthetic vision and presentation of Solari's publications—the classiest of acts out there in our corner of the media space."

"Catherine is not only sharp as a tack, she seems extremely genuine and authentic. Like a breath of fresh air. God bless!"

"I have never felt so empowered by listening to this woman! She is intelligent and her love for family and people is just inspiring."

"Thanks so much for your optimism and your belief that we can turn everything around. I'll keep trying to do my part, and I feel that supporting you multiplies my effect."

"Words cannot express my gratitude for the amazing intelligence that I have received during my first year of subscription. The Solari team has opened a world that I didn't know existed.... The things I value now have changed drastically. Thanks to the Solari Report, I now have a clearer idea on how I want to live my life purposefully."
