

The Solari Report

Idaho 2030: A Vision of Freedom

Stories and Links

Jun 27, 24

Time	Story
00.00.00	Introduction
00.04.26	Weston A. Price Foundation
00.04.36	Financial Transaction Freedom
00.05.10	Pastor Tim Remington Opening Prayer
00.09.25	Representative Heather Scott
00.14.14	Idaho Department of Water Resources
00.14.26	Albeni Falls Dam
00.15.38	#CashEveryDay
00.16.47	101 Things You Can Do
00.19.54	Senator Phil Hart
00.23.22	Ada County
00.25.11	Silver Mining
00.27.45	Sunshine Minting
00.32.20	Senator Ben Toews
00.33.17	Idaho State University
00.39.28	Representative Elaine Price
00.41.13	I want to Stop CBDCs - What Can I Do
00.48.11	Representative Josh Tanner
00.56.13	Question 1 - What did you find were the most successful strategies for mobilizing Idaho citizens to take action?
00.58.55	Question 2 - Sometimes it's really hard to find judges. Can you talk about how good judges came into play?
01.01.23	Question 3 - When we revamped the school system, how did the state of Idaho treat federal money? And what effect did the changes have on Idaho colleges and universities?
01.04.43	Question 4 - When you introduced legislation to move the state into purchasing precious metals and taking other related steps, what was the process by which you educated the legislators, the state treasurer's staff, and the auditors? What helped get them on board?
01.10.28	Question 5 - Idaho's executive branch had become very big, with something like 189 commissions and agencies putting forth administrative rules, which have the force of law. Can you share what you did to push back on those executive agencies and the administrative rule process?
01.15.55	Question 6 - Idaho took on a leadership role among the U.S. states. How did we get our messages and strategies to other states so that they could adopt them and enjoy some of the same freedoms?
01.19.00	Question 7 - What did you do to engage with your local citizens, and how did they support the legislation and changes that we've seen in the last few years?
01.27.10	Question 8 - In the face of pressure and resistance, how did the legislators keep moving forward so effectively, with endurance and persistence? Tell us how you did it, so we can do it, too!
01.30.33	Pastor Tim Remington Closing Prayer
01.32.04	Idaho Republican Party - We Are Idaho